Client interest rates schedule

(as at 6 November 2024)

The below table sets out interest paid currently on uninvested cash for the accounts held with us. Dowgate is not a bank and is paid interest on cash balances based on the rates of interest provided to us by our Custodians hence why rates differ to savings rates offered by Banks. Client cash remains instantly available should you require the cash to either invest into the market or alternatively return to your own Bank Account.
